THE GRAND JURY CHARGES THAT:

(Threat to Assault a United States Judge)

On or about August 17, 2004, in Moniteau County, in the Western District of Missouri, GREGORY W. BREEDEN, Defendant, did threaten to assault United States Magistrate Judge William A. Knox, that is, to incapacitate Judge Knox by restricting the blood flow to his brain, with intent to retaliate against Judge Knox on account of the performance of his official duties, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 115(a)(1)(B), and punishable under Title 18, United States Code, Section 115(b)(4).

A TRUE BILL.

FOREPERSON OF THE GRAND JURY

LAWRENCE E. MILLER

Assistant United States Attorney
Missouri Bar No. 39531
